In the afternoon the excursion party met at the Grand Southern hotel, where we had a most cordial reception, with prominent persons. After this, whilst yet assembled, Prof. Harris, of Lincoln University, Ill., on behalf of the excursionists, presented, in a brief but appropriate address, a heautiful gold headed otto and Tower Grove parks, the city cane, worth about $50, to Col. Leader, water works, and Shaw's great Botanis preserving the other Western Cities enabling trave as a tribute of respect, in lieu of his hair. After a pleasant succeed during the night's travel, we awoke in the morning, refreshed and prepared to enjoy landscape views, such as great pine forests, saw-mills, cotton and grain fields, and an occasional frightened deer. Wednesday, June 2d, we arrived at Palestine, and were greeted by the inlimbitants, and cordially invited to tables loaded with another free and houn-titul dinner. We already had an exulted conception of the Lone Star State, but now we were ready to admit the goodness of her people generally. After dinner, short, spontaneous speeches were made by representatives on both sides. This time Dr. Blake, the "long man," was selected as our spokesman,-Among other things he related an anecdote of a man who, some years ago m lived in Wilcon county, Tean, This man had never been out of the sight of in the smoke of his own chimney, and alter deep study, one morning, he came to his wife and said: "I have never saw much of the world yet, and I am going to get on old Blaze and ride out and look at it to-day." About six o'clock in the evening we arrived at Jufferson, having completed the excursion, and were glad to enjoy a night's rest, so as to be ready for the morning train bound for St. Louis. Being invited to do so before starting, we went to the boarding places we had during the sitting of the General Assembly, and were as kindly entertained as before. The family of Mr. Duke, where Rev. New York, July 12 .- The Tribune to-morrow will publish a letter from Thurlow Weed, in which he affirms, on trustworthy information, that on three occasions during the first year of the rebellion Queen Victoria contributed essentially to the preservation of peace between this country and England. After the receipt of Gildersleeve's declination of the invitation to the Americans to shoot against a picked eight, the counsel of the National Rifle Association met and informally agreed that the match should be arranged, if possible, on the terms of the first proposal. Parsons, of the National Rifle Assos

There will be a special meeting of the council to confirm this resolution. We have decided to be propared next year, with an imperial team, to try conclusions with any other nation, and we hope another band of gallant Yankees wift come and give or take a lesson from Johany, Sandy or Paddy. They will have a hearty welcome, a fair field, and no favor.

Col. Gildersleeve has officially replied to an inquiry from the London agent of the Associated Press, that the determi nation of the Americans, not to shoot in another team match on this side of the Atlantic, is final; that members of the team are now separated and cannot be brought together for any purpose before next week.
